

About this privacy notice

Resilience Multi Academy Trust (RMAT) is required by law to collect and process personal information about our workforce. We are committed to being transparent about how we collect and use this information and to meet our data protection obligations.

This privacy notice provides you with information about how we collect and process personal information of our workforce and members of RMAT Governance in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

This notice applies to current and former employees, members of RMAT Governance, workers and contractors. This notice does not form part of any contract of employment or other contract to provide services. We may update this notice at any time but if we do so, we will provide you with an updated copy of this notice as soon as reasonably practical.

This privacy notice also covers the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems which may process personal data as part of educational and administrative functions. We are committed to transparently explaining how these technologies are used and the data they process.

Who are we?

We are RMAT, a multi-academy trust incorporating a number of different schools and academies. Our registered office is Resilience Multi Academy Trust, The Featherstone Academy, Pontefract Road, Featherstone, Pontefract, West Yorkshire, WF7 5AJ and our company number is 07990619. This privacy notice has been issued on behalf of RMAT. When we refer to “we”, “us”, “our” or “the Trust” within this privacy notice, we are referring to RMAT and/or its academies which are part of RMAT. RMAT is the ‘data controller’ for the purposes of data protection law and is registered with the Information Commissioner’s Office.

RMAT has appointed a Data Protection Officer who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact the DPO using the details set out below.

Storing personal information

We keep workforce information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting or reporting requirements. Details of retention periods for different aspects of personal information are set out in our Records Management Policy and are available upon request. After this period, we will securely destroy or anonymise personal information in accordance with data protection law.

Use of Artificial Intelligence (AI)

We employ AI technologies to support various administrative functions. These technologies are designed to comply with data protection laws and are implemented with safeguards to protect your privacy. If you have any concerns about the use of AI in processing your data, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Who do we share information with?

We routinely share workforce information with:

- The local authority in which your workplace is located.
- The Department for Education
- Examining bodies
- Ofsted
- Law enforcement agencies
- Courts and tribunals
- Other schools and academies within RMAT
- Our auditors, insurers and other professional advisers
- Health and social welfare organisations
- Occupational health providers
- Other third parties we may engage the services of for the purposes of providing a public task or the administration of RMAT, for example our safeguarding monitoring software, our management information system provider
- Other third parties to whom we may choose to transfer or merge parts of RMAT or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other trusts, schools or academies or merge with them. If a change happens to RMAT then the new management team may use your personal information in the same way as set out in the privacy notice.
- This list is not exhaustive as there are other circumstances where we may also be required to share information, for example:
  - To comply with our legal obligations.
  - In connection with legal proceedings (or where we are instructed to do so by Court order).

Your rights

Data protection law gives you certain rights about how your information is collected and used. To make a request for your personal information, please contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing dpo@rmat.uk

Under data protection law, you also have the following rights:

- the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data – this is called ‘right to be informed’.
- the right to ask us for copies of your personal information we have about you – this is called ‘right of access’, this is also known as a subject access request (SAR), data subject access request or right of access request.
- the right to ask us to change any information you think is not accurate or complete – this is called ‘right to rectification’.
- the right to ask us to delete your personal information – this is called ‘right to erasure’
- the right to ask us to stop using your information – this is called ‘right to restriction of processing’.
- the ‘right to object to processing’ of your information, in certain circumstances.
- rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling.
- the right to withdraw consent at any time (where relevant).
- the right to complain to the Information Commissioner if you feel we have not used your information in the right way.

There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your information rights request, which depends on why we are processing it. For example, some rights will not apply:

- right to erasure does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation or public task.
- right to portability does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests.
- right to object does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is contract, legal obligation or vital interests. And if the lawful basis is consent, you don’t haven’t the right to object, but you have the right to withdraw consent.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner’s Office at Make a complaint about how an organisation has used your personal information | ICO.

Withdrawal of consent

Where we are processing your personal information with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting our Data Protection Officer by emailing dpo@rmat.uk

Contact

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or the way in which we use your personal information, please contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing dpo@rmat.uk
